Message From The Commodore Georgie Olsen

To All Members a big Thank You for taking the time to participate this last month. We had many more of you showing up for Wed, Fri. and Sat. dinners and other functions. This has helped to bring the months profits into the black. Nice for a change but it is not enough with the economy the way it is. Your Board of Directors have your best interest at hand but must also keep the business end of the Club running in a smooth manner. This folks takes income. The current Board and the incoming board are working together to find equitable solutions to the problem. All avenues for both income and expenditure side of the balance sheet are being investigated. All of us (members) are aware of the tough times many are having but in order to survive we must make some changes. Please keep an open mind, that is all I'm asking for.

We have had many wonderful functions in September, and October looks to be as much fun. The TGIF was wonderful and we enjoyed Joyce and her crew's fish fry and the horse races. Then Holiday supper club was filled with a lot of great friends and made every one happy. The Bill-Fish Tournament kick off went great as well as the Awards for the fisherman a week later. Thank you Islanders for making this all happen. We had out of town guest from another Yacht Club and they thought we were just wonderful.

Guess they found out our Secret. (We are wonderful). At this writing we have not had the Anniversary Dinner Dance but know that it being a 50's theme it will be spectacular and anything the Past Commodore's do is going to be a blast. How about that Talent Show, I know you are all still talking about it. Great comes to mind. Kudos to Barbara and all who were generous, humorous and giving of their time to make it happen. The last race of our this year was also a great success. Ladies you and your crew were the best of the best. Thank you for your competitive nature and the good will this event promotes. Now that Wet Wednesdays are done I hope to see more of our racers at the dinners on Wednesdays and using the club to have fun.

Your new Board has been chosen. Welcome to James McCulley, Nancy Latham, Jane Thomas, Phil Woolf, Bob Ridenour. I can only say one thing. Please give them all your support, encouragement and most of all understanding. The task of running the Club is not an easy one so show patience and again understanding. You are all welcome to come to a board meeting and offer suggestions and concerns, but remember the Nine board members make most of the decisions for the ultimate outcome. Negativity has no place in our club. You will be choosing your new Bridge also so get to know your new board so a wise decision by each of you who vote can be made.

May the power that by always bring you safely home to CIYC

Message From The Vice Commodore Cary Verstynen

Hello everyone. Well, September is over. We had some great dinners, both on Wednesday and Saturday nights. A nice dingy party, an anniversary dinner, a talent/variety show, bill fish tournament kick off dinner and awards dinner. Plus there was also a couple of weddings. So my thanks to all the men and women who helped cook for all these events, set tables and help with clean up. Also to all the club members who came out and supported these events.

The club also started Monday night football this past month. So if you like to watch football come on out to watch the game, both Sunday and Monday.

We have some great events coming up in October. There is a Beef Eaters dinner on the 15th, a Brunch Bunch brunch on the 9th, Halloween social on the 29th and the last TGIF for the year on the 7th. So October should be a fun month. So come on out and visit and enjoy the club.

In the coming months I would like to see some volunteers for Wednesday night dinners, Christmas day, any help is appreciated. A lot of things get done around the club, because of volunteers. So volunteer for what ever you would like to do. The club will find a crew for you to be on. I look forward to seeing everyone at the club.

Have a great month and come out and visit.

Message From The Rear Commodore Mary Ingram

While I am honored to be Rear Commodore for the last four months of 2011, I must tell you that Mary Foster has made it so easy – she has 98% of the remaining tasks all planned out. Please thank Mary for all the successes and if you have any complaints, please bring them directly to me.

The Neil Underwood was not without its challenges – the Committee Boat had a mechanical “issue.” However, CIYC member Rick Wilson came through – although Rick wasn’t in town at the beginning of the race, when Dick Olsen called him to tell him of our situation, Rick immediately told Dick to use his boat as the Committee Boat. Thank you both.

Sherry Brisbane did another wonderful job of putting the September 10th dinghy party together - I had no idea the planning and work that went into the dingy parties until I offered to help Sherry. We have several Energizer Bunnies in this Club and Sherry is one of them!

CIYC’s Lady at the Helm on September 24th is co-sponsored by the Channel Islands Women’s Sailing Association. We anticipate that at least twelve to fifteen boats will participate.

Now, before the “rumors” start again that CIWSA is or wants to be a yacht club - that is not the case. CIWSA was organized to encourage women to sail, whether it is day sailing, cruising or racing. It promotes camaraderie among women sailors from Ventura and Channel Islands Harbors and has not taken and will not take members from CIYC; but rather, four women have joined CIYC that were not previously members of a yacht club. They joined because the CIYC members who assisted in the formation of CIWSA invited them to CIYC; they were made to feel welcome; and they had so much fun at the Club.

Now, to a subject that is very near and dear to my heart –racing. The top three boats vying for high point this year are CIYC RAM boats: Velero, Brent Swanson; Quiettimes, Tom Warshauer; and Breezy, Chris Johnson. YESSSS – you go guys!!!! If I’m not mistaken, most of the crew are also CIYC RAM’s with a few Regular Members rounding out the crew.

Our RAM’s contribute so much to our racing program, our dinners, our events and our FUN quotient. And that rumor that the Board is trying to do away with the RAM’s is NOT TRUE. Think about it -where would CIYC’s racing program be without our RAM’s? One of the best things about the RAM’s is that CIYC gained some of the most energetic and talented cooks for our dinners and events – Carol Lapointe, Kelly Warshauer, LeeAnne Clark, Bunni Hynes, just to name a few. Please don’t forget that some of our RAM’s also run our Race Committee and, thus, do the “heavy lifting” with the races we sponsor. Oh yes, our RAM’s have won high point in the past, two Newport to Ensenada races and participated in the TransPac.

Five boats from Bahia Corinthian Yacht Club visited us September 9th. They were cruising from Newport Beach to Channel Islands and on to Santa Barbara and to Santa Rosa Island before heading back to Newport. They had spoken to Mary Foster about this previously and were looking forward to the fabulous fish fry put on by Joyce Sheridan and Clark Owen, Shelly and Nancy Berger and the “backup team”: Sylvia Hyde, Carol LaPointe, Bonnie Chaney, and Phyllis Lewis. My apologies to whomever I have managed to leave out! Without the assistance of these ladies, the event would not have happened. Although the Billfish Tournament Kickoff Dinner was the same night, Cary set up tables in the fireplace room and the group was served in there. The wonderful “backup team” served our visitors in addition to the Billfish Dinner attendees. The folks from BCYC could not thank us enough or give us enough compliments about how welcome we made them feel and, of course, about the wonderful food. Thank you all for welcoming the BCYC folks as if they were already a part of our CIYC family.

Please let me know if you can help out on the Parade of Lights – creativity is not my strong suit. The theme is Christmas in the tropics. My guess is that most boats will go with Christmas in Hawaii. What can CIYC do that is different??

Thank each and every one of you for all you do and for making all guests and event participants feel welcome.

Channel Islands Bill Fish Tournament Results:

Like last year, this year's tournament (the 40th year) was characterized by cool waters and no Marlin. The Tournament finished on Wednesday, September 14, 2011. The fishing was tough and none of the 16 participants were able to hook a marlin. Only one marlin was spotted by Bad Habit near the 277. The weather was beautiful and the seas were calm.

Skip Miser on Dawn Patrol won the Big Fish side bet with an impressive 29lb Yellowtail. Finatic weighed in a 10.3lb WSB and a 21.5lb Halibut. No marlin this year but still a great tournament. Credit is due to all the boats that tried so hard to find fish.

Both the kick off dinner and the awards dinner were worth the entrance fee by themselves. Thank you to the Islanders for stepping up again to provide for this event.

Big fish of the month is Dick Olsen's 28lb Yellow Tail

WSB Pen Update:

The WSB Pens are now in full operational mode. We now have 14,500 Juvenile White Sea Bass under our care. We took delivery of 10,000 fish by commercial boat August 30th and another 4500 by tank truck September 6th.

The delivery was well covered by an article in the Ventura County Star newspaper It can be read on line here:

HISTORIAN

Beverly Hamilton

Well, here it is fall. Our boating activities are winding down and it is time for some fun.

October is the time for the A. A. Oakley race. All the Predicted Log Racers from up and down the California coast come to CIYC for the final race and awards for the season. Don and Carole Olin have for years taken charge of the race, awards, and events. We will certainly miss Carole this year.

At the end of the month was the Halloween Parties. These are some highlights over the years. One year diminutive Ginny Farrell came dressed as a leopard and she really played the part well.

One of our bartenders dressed as the wicked queen from Snow White. Sarah Roberts came as a gypsy, she looked so cute. There were all sorts of ghosts and goblins, kings and queens, pumpkins, pirates and elves. One year there arrived two alligators walking on all fours. The crowd parted as they came through the club. After the initial shock, low and behold !!! ... they were Joyce Sheridan and Clark Owens.

Our members were very creative when it came to decorating. There was the usual Dracula in the coffin, and skeletons hanging from the light fixtures. One year when you came through the entry door, you walked through a corridor of black fabric full of hands.

As you walked through, every few minutes one of the hands would reach out and grab your shoulder or arm or leg. It was very scary and you couldn't help but scream. As you rounded the corner, a mad doctor was carving up a body on a table with a saw. The body was real, as were the various body parts on the table. I don't know how they did that, but it was pretty gruesome.

As you can see, our Club has had a lot of fun with Halloween night. Let's hope for many more.

Thank you Kim and Gary Cole for being such super first-time Dinghy hosts! Tim Haapanen, Darin McKInga, Diane Arsdall worked non-stop! I couldn't have done it without you guys! You are so appreciated!!!!

Joyce Sheridan made lemonade out of lemons when she was on her way to hang the "touchy-Feely" bags in Duane Wherland's boat and he ran out of juice! Graham Paine to the rescue in his dinghy-he runs out of gas! Along comes our heroine, Cindy Argosty in her dinghy and rescues them all! So Joyce just comes back and hangs the "touchy-Feely" bags on the Cole's deck railings! Turned out great!

It was a riot! A lot of laughs, a lot of fun!

Mary Howard got me out of a bind when we found the club kitchen was in use. She took the beans and coleslaw home and finished them there. Thanks, Mary!

Leslie and Pat Korecky took shifts working the bar. Thanks girls!

Kathy Griffith sold the tickets and took the money. Thanks Kathy. We netted over 300 dollars and more to come!

Everyone was having so much fun, Kim Cole tipped the band so the band played on-and-on-and on! Dancing Fools never want to stop! Ruth Hatcher's cookies were almost "the frosting on the cake" but Lewis Clark topped it by taking "the touchy Feely" game" literally! He got so mesmerized with his girlfriend he took off with her to go back to his boat only for his dinghy to run out of gas! Take that whatever way you want to!?

All in all - the day ended up in a GRAND-GRAND FINALE!!

Your Dinghy-Dinghy Queen, Sherry Brisbane

An open letter to the Members from an Epicurean:

Having now crewed on a few Saturday-night dinners, I have learned that we Epicureans are a diverse group of women. Most of us love to cook, some of us like to serve, we all love a good party, and don't mind volunteering to help make one happen. We are homemakers, retirees, office managers, medical workers, project managers, and a host of other occupations.

But one thing I can tell you that we all have in common: none of us are food-service workers or restaurant owners. Given that, I am continually impressed that we are able to pull off these dinners as well as we do. Many of us have never cooked for this many people before, or worked in an industrial-sized kitchen. And yet we have had some pretty sensational culinary successes, have we not? Those of us who work to put these events on are always thrilled by the satisfied smiles and delighted accolades we receive from our fellow club members.

Which is why it can be so startling when someone treats us poorly.

Putting on one of these dinners is no easy feat. Menus must be planned, recipes converted, shopping done. We will often start cooking a day or more in advance. On the day of the event, the core crew will usually begin early in the morning, preparing the ingredients and devising crew assignments. The rest of the crew will arrive mid-afternoon – and from that point on it's a veritable frenzy of chopping, mixing, boiling, sautéing, baking, roasting and stirring. Once the bell rings, the next rush begins – transporting the food upstairs using the temperamental dumbwaiter, plating, serving, and clearing. We generally don't even get to eat – by the time we can sit down, we're often so sick of looking at this food that we wouldn't want to anyway. Besides, when we're on an Epicurean crew, it is our pleasure to ensure that everyone is happy.

However, no matter how hard we try, it's simply impossible to please everyone. We know that, and accept it. But complaints about the menu (“What? You're not serving chicken?”), or snarky comments (“I can't believe I paid twenty dollars for this!”) are not exactly helpful. Nor do they inspire us to want to continue to volunteer our time.

And it's not just at Epicurean events. The crew at a recent club event found themselves short-handed, leading to long lines and unsliced rolls. But instead of offering to help (or, gosh-darn-it, slicing their rolls themselves!), people stood and complained. Out loud.

Perhaps some members need to be reminded that this is a club that thrives on the enthusiasm, involvement, and volunteer spirit of its members. Without those of us willing to give of ourselves, we wouldn't have Saturday night Epicurean dinners...or a club at all, for that matter.

Fortunately, these unpleasant moments have been relatively rare. I know that the vast majority of our members love our club, and go out of their way to express appreciation for the volunteers. Still, I'd like to make a few suggestions:

1. Before signing up for a dinner, check the menu. Whatever's on there – that's what's being served. If you don't like ribs, it's probably not a good idea to come to a “bbq ribs dinner”.
2. The servers do their best to serve equitably, but sometimes a plate might get shortchanged. If you're not happy with what's on your plate, feel free to bring it back and it'll be replaced. If you do it with a smile, you'll probably get a smile back. In fact, PLEASE do it with a smile.
3. If you can see the crew at an event is short-handed, and you're not particularly busy...feel free to pitch in and help.
4. Please remember that these are not paid restaurant workers. They're members just like you and they're working to make your club a fun place to go. Please appreciate them.

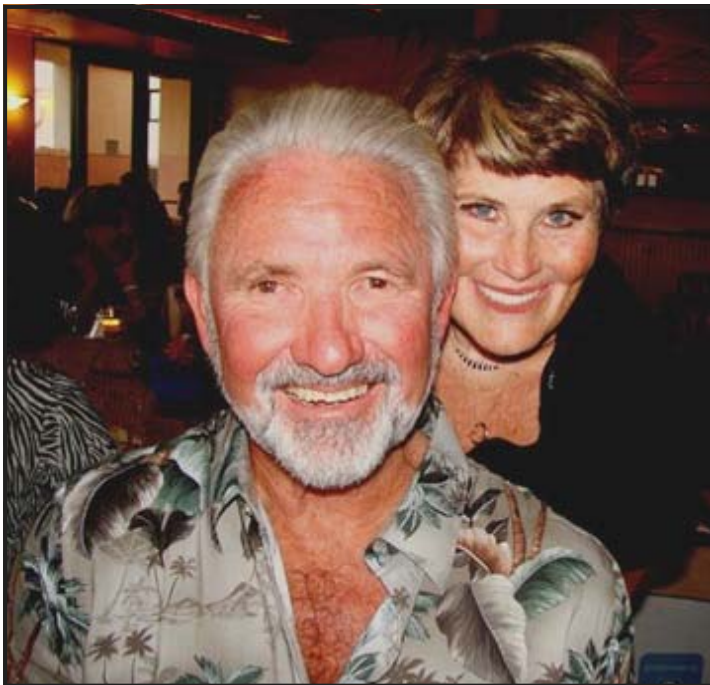

I'm a relatively new member – less than two years – and I have written this from my own perspective. On the whole I have found this club to be very welcoming, and full of fun-loving people who share our love of the sea. I wish to offer my personal thanks to all of the members who give their time and work so hard to make our club great.
